“ I'm one of his Sunday school kids. I'm so proud to say Mr Franklin was my first preacher I can remember! It was so important to him to get us all to church. As a Mom, I understand, and I'm so thankful for Him being such a great role model in my life. Thank You for your kindness and the time you shared with me! Heaven defiantly gained a wonderful angel. My sincere condolences for the Family and Friends

“ I met papa 13 years ago and instantly took a liking to him ,he was always on the go doing something outside if he wasnt outside he was inside fussing at nannie lol,that man had a heart if gold I looked at him as family as I did the rest of the family,I have spent alot of weekends down in Alabama with tammy and her family,going and visiting him in the hospital ,I was just there this past weekend and sat with him in his room in a chair by his bed,I held his hand and just talked to him,he didnt respond but he would open his eyes and look at me, so I knew he heard me,do to circumstances beyond my control I can not be there Friday to say my final good byes but tammy and the family know if I could I'd be there in a heart beat....we love you papa fly high sweet man fly high
