

Bobby Randel Weiss

September 15, 1944 - November 2, 2020

Weiss, Bobby Randel, age 76, of Birmingham, passed away on November 2, 2020. The graveside service will be at 2:00 p.m., Monday, November 9 at Acton Memorial Cemetery with Walter L. Bates officiating. The cemetery is located behind Altadena Valley Presbyterian Church. Bolton Funeral Home is directing.

Bob was born in Huntsville, Alabama on September 15, 1944, but the family soon moved to Birmingham. He was blessed with a good intellect and an innate curiosity; and by his early teens, he was able to build a radio from scratch. Bob became a man with a plan. He made a schedule and kept it without wavering. Reading was his forte every day – the Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, and a selection of science, history, geography, and travel books. Recently, he told friends he would like to travel to Germany and the United Kingdom, as he was fascinated by the Queen and royalty.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents: Robert J. Weiss and Emma Lee Taylor Weiss. He is survived by his sister: Dorothy Ann Weiss Bates (Walter L.); a number of nieces and nephews: including Greg Bates and Meredith Tryon, and Melanie Williams (Ronald).

“ Sorry to hear reading today in THE BIRMINGHAM NEWS the death of Bobby. I have a lot of fond memories of him and his sister Dorothy. I do recall Bobby making the radio which amazed me. I went to grammar school with Dorothy from first to third grade. I visited Bobby several times when I went back to Birmingham to see my grandparents. Several of those visits Bobby would go with me to Kiddeland to spend the day. I currently live in Jackson's Gap on Lake Martin and have two married sons (one in Hoover, one in Vestavia) and three grandkids. Dorothy you can contact me sometime at 256-825-2536, would like to catch up with you and find out more about Bobby.
