“ I had the pleasure of working with Jerry for several years. It was very interesting listening to his detailed description of his turkey hunting love. He and his family are and have been friends of mine for my entire life.

“ Jerry was my best buddy starting in Shelby first grade school, 1945. That is truly a lifetime ago but your are never ready to let your best friend go. I remember he would come down to the old Shrader place and go swimming with me in the blue hole. We could run practically all day and jump in the creek to cool off. (Air conditioning didn,t exist back then.) His loss will be felt across Shelby county and beyond! I pray that those that knew him will be comforted in the knowledge that he was a true Christian that will never die. If your are one too, his departure is only temporary. You will see him again, but only after your have to go thru the same process, sad to say! I send my sincere condolences to his entire family: wife, Judy and sons, Forrest and Jeff. He told me that the former was named for me. How special is that?

“ I remember meeting Jerry back in the 1980's. My husband Reeder (Pete) introduced him. He was wearing a cowboy hat so I thought he was a cowboy. He and my husband were good friends and enjoyed each other's company. My condolences to you Judy and the family. God be with you in the days ahead and bring you comfort.
