“ I have known Larry all my life. He has always been such a joy to be around and has always been so kind to my family and me. We love him dearly. If I was feeling down for whatever reason, he could cheer me up and have me laughing. From my mother, JJ and me to Emily and JP, we love you and are praying for you. —Carissa

“ I wish I had photographs of Emily and Larry in Latin class at UM. He was an exuberant student, confident, almost arrogant, but certainly sure of himself and his world, and he fell in love with a sweet, studious, shy, sweet Emily. That speaks of his class, to know a good gal when he met her. I cry thinking of a long-lasting love between these two I had the pleasure of watching fall in love. For all the couples in the world, this couple represented the best love and lived a lovely life and nurtured a cherished son. I am so very sorry Larry didn't last - he should have. He had gusto for life. I know in my soul he is grieving, too, that he couldn't be here longer for Emily and his son. But, that is life. Unfair, but he'd say to live life to the fullest - which he did. Too soon, Larry, but well done. I think of you daily, Emily.

“ Worked with Larry at Alabama Power Company for many years at the Montevallo Office. He was such a gentleman and a pleasure to work with. My deepest sympathy to Emily and J.P. May God’s grace and love sustain them during this sad time.
