“ Dearest Dawn and family, I was so deeply saddened to hear about Aaron. I met Aaron when my son, Kyle, brought him over several years ago. I wished I had someone more comforting to say that would take away your and your family's heart ache. I can offer prayers and God's grace to you all. Respectfully and lovingly in Christ, Kim Gowens

“ Aaron was like a son, he stayed many nights at our house, I have worried about him just like I have with Storm, and Storm loved Aaron like he was his brother. We will never forget his laughs, his thoughts, his caring heart and just being Aaron. Storm and I will always have you and your family in our prayers and thoughts . Our lives were better & blessed because they were touched by the prescience and friendship of Aaron. May God give you a peace that Aaron is at peace. We Loved Him and Will Miss Him
