“ Uncle Reid, Gwen and Mike and families, I am so very sorry for your loss! Though we had lost touch over the years, I still remember going to your house when I was little and how sweet Aunt Alice was to all of her nieces and nephews. I know that she, Debbie and Gordon are having a wonderful reunion, celebrating her homecoming! We pray that God will surround each of you with His loving arms and the peace that passes understanding as you grieve. May He help you through the sadness and bring you to a point, eventually, when remembering her brings to mind happy times more than the sadness of losing her. I love you!

“ To my brother and his family, Alice is now walking - walking the streets of Gold. She is happy and free of pain. She is again holding little Gordon and Debbie in her arms. Be comforted in knowing she was a good and Christian lady. She was always a kind and nice sister-in-law. She will be missed, but you can find joy in knowing she is in Heaven and enjoying her ever lasting life. My love to all of you. Dot

“ Gone, but not forgotten. Gwen, may your mother rest in peace. She lived a life filled with eventful changes on Earth that only a few have experienced. What an amazing story she can sit down and tell the Lord. I love you.
