“ I just found out that my dear cousin Amy passed away on December. I am so saddened. She came and lived with me and my family for awhile, and we lost contact for awhile. We reconnected a few years ago and promised to never lose touch again. However, life being what it is, we didn't keep that promise. I will always cherish our memories and regret losing her. Rest well my dear cousin, and I am sure I will see you again soon in heaven. What a family reunion we will have!

“ I had never met a person so readily open, kind and giving as Amy. She illuminated a person we should all strive to be. If you were touched with the kindness of Amy, you were touched by an Angel. We should all recognize that. I was touched and Blessed to know her for a short period of time, I appreciate all that she was. May her soul rest in peace and love in the presence of our Lord. I am certain she's there.

“ I met Amy through playing billiards. I was fortunate to be on several billiards teams with her. She hated to warm up and never wanted to be the first to play. When she did play she was extremely focused, a fierce competitor.

She was a generous and loving friend. Those who were in her sphere of influence have fond memories of her kindness. This world is a colder place without her in it. She is missed!

“ Amy and I first met at a pool tournament in 2015. My husband and I had recently joined the league, and she wound up playing opposite him in a match while I kept score. She was so warm, welcoming, and friendly to me as a complete stranger and a brand new player that as we chatted during their match, I felt like I had known her for years. That day, she encouraged me to join the Ladies 8 Ball League, and as luck would have it, I did and wound up being placed on her team, Ball Crushers.

The very next year, our team won a trip to play in the Ladies 8-Ball Championships in Las Vegas. We had a wonderful trip competing with the other winning teams, and we all enjoyed the time we spent together as teammates and friends.

What an honor and a blessing it has been to call Amy my friend for all these years. She was one of the most kindhearted and genuinely selfless people I have ever known and a true angel to everyone she ever met. I will always miss Amy, but I am comforted by the knowledge that she is at peace in Heaven and that we will meet again someday.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Amy's family. May God bless you and keep you during this time of loss.

Amy was my friend through playing pool. I knew her for 10 years, and she was always kind, caring, and sweet. We always talked about our families, and our love of plants. We exchanged plants at pool league one night, and we both had been taught not to say thank you for the plant, but instead say I will give it a good home, and take care of it. Amy was an amazing lady who always had a sweet smile, and a pleasant word. I always enjoyed playing pool with her as an opponent. She was a great pool player, and really made you think about the next shot. Amy won most of the matches we played, and was an excellent sportsman. I will miss her, and her kindness. May you rest in Heaven dear friend.
