

Amy Sanchez

September 19, 1979 - December 18, 2022

Beloved Mother, Daughter, Sister and friend Amy Nicole (Bailey) Sanchez has died at the age of 43; surrounded by her loved ones on Sunday, December 18, 2022. Born to Jim and Cindy Bailey on September 19, 1979, she is survived by them, her children Kathryn McBride, U.S. Army Sgt A.J. Sanchez, Luke and Emilee Walker, son-in-law Garrett McBride, daughter-in-law US Army SPC Janika Sanchez, granddaughter Sofia James McBride and the newest granddaughter; soon-to-be-born Nicole Sanchez, sister Sarah Smith, brother-in-law Todd Smith and niece Bailey Miriam-Annette Smith.

Amy was kind. She raised her four children to be kind. As a devout Christian, the kind and utterly selfless example she set for her children every single day of her life lay the most solid foundation for their lives in their walk with Jesus Christ. She reveled in the warm comfort of their company and that of her many loving friends. Further, Amy could be relied upon for calm and useful advice in any situation; a precious trait describing her by so many. Amy was a gentle and patient tutor, leading students from frustration into confident understanding.

Amy was so proud of each person she knew, and found a way to encourage them. She was everyone's best friend. This is the Amy Sanchez that we know. She supported every single person, often when it meant she would go without; especially when it meant she would go without. Amy was absolutely devoted to her family, with all she possibly had to give, from the moment she could show it, until the last day of her life, with the last words she spoke, she thought only of others.

Beloved and kind Mother, Daughter, Sister and Friend Amy Nicole Sanchez of Wilsonville, Alabama. Secure in the everlasting Glory of God. Resident of Heaven.

A visitation will be held on Wednesday, December 21, 2022, at 1PM at Bolton Funeral Home. A funeral service will follow at 2PM. Rev. Betsy King Rutland will be presiding. She will be laid to rest at Wilsonville City Cemetery.

“ I’m so very sorry. ❤️ Amy was always so kind. She always welcomed me into their house as a teen and did care for me as her own. I remember one time I came to spend the night there and Kat wasn’t even home and I just was there with Amy and Luke. (when he was a baby) One time there were chances of tornados in Wilsonville and at the time I lived in a trailer. She came and picked me up to make sure I was safe. She really was a good mom and always wanted the best for all her kids. I’m sad I cannot attend the funeral because I live in Texas now. But my Dad will be there in my place. I will be praying for all of you. For comfort and peace as the days to come. ❤️

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Amy was always kind to me and my children. She was always smiling and laughing at her own children most of the time. She allowed us to be part of her children’s lives through school, church, and home and fir that we are grateful. I know that Amy will continue to watch over her children and grandchildren for ever and always.
