“ My thoughts continue to be with your family. I was very blessed to have been able to meet Anita. I pray God gives you all the comfort that I know you need right now. That you can feel His arms wrapped around you, and that His love overwhelms your hearts, as you deal with such grief.

“ Words can't begin to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of Anita. We sometimes don't understand God's timing but we know that it is all for His glory. I pray that you will find peace and comfort in our Savior at this time, for Anita is surely in the hands of Jesus and is in no more pain. When we lose someone we love, it seems time stands still, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. May those memories give you strength and may God comfort you during this time. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless.

“ Anita was one of the sweetest person's you could get to know. Alan said that she was the one person in the family that actually made him feel welcome when we came down for the family Thanksgiving Dinner at Brenda & James House. She always kept in touch with me no matter where I moved and let me know what was going on in her life at that time. She always respected me, never talked back to me, and addressed me as Aunt Becky. She had a hard life here but I know she is in a better place now and her troubles are over as ours continue. All I can say now is....Anita you are so lucky to be with your Dad, and my Mama, and Daddy. Tell them I said hello, and I love them.
