“ What wouldn't we give for one more day, one more hour, or 5 more minutes... we will never forget our gentle friend who loved with all she had. The only comfort to be found is that you are with your mother. You will always hold a special place in our heart.

“ Ashley...I know we wasn't on the best of terms until your last 2 days here but I will never forget the conversations we had. Up until your last breath you were worried about someone else and that shows the caring heart that you had. You're an angel now so spread your wings and fly! I'll always remember you! Love you...

“ Ashley had the biggest heart anyone could ask for. She cared so much for everyone she met. I met her when we worked at McDonald's together when it opened in Chelsea, we had the best time working together there were always smiles and laughter. She will always be in my heart the memories will never be forgotten.

“ Me and Ashley had so many memories anything from bacon to hunger games and the walking dead. We floated the river anytime we had chance and laughed whenever we was together. No matter what was going on we could lift each other up. Ashley I love you more you will ever know!
