“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ My condolences the family. I remember Lisa as a young girl and teenager. I visited her when children were babies and I hadn't seen her since. She had a good sense of humor (I think she got that from Aunt Lou and Cotton!) I know we'll all see her again someday when we get to our heavenly home. This is just our temporary home. God bless and keep you. Saying prayers for you all.

“ This is a cousin of mine that I've had many many good times with. I'll remember her laughter and the way she loved her family most of all. May she be reunited with the loved ones that have gone before her, knowing that she will be missed by the ones she leaves behind. Wish she wouldn't have left so soon and we could've kept the plans we had for the summer. God be with us all...
