“ Brian, I am so sorry for your loss. Beth was so very humble. She never once complained. Y'all would come to J.W. Steakhouse and set and listen to me complain for hours, giving me hope, love, and bible verses to lean on. I felt so self-centered the night she come in without her wig, and I realized she was the only one who truly had something to complain about, but she never did. If there were more Beth's in the world, the world would be a better place. I truly feel blessed, grateful, and humbled to have had her in my life. I can see her in heaven now smiling down on us. She always had a beautiful smile on her face. I could always see the love for you in her eyes. I truly feel she is an angel now. Beth, I Love You and I Miss You. Rest In Peace My Beloved Friend. Sincerely, Connie Frost

Beth was a beautiful Christian woman and someone who I want to be like in my life. Beth touched so many lives and will never be forgotten. “ This is a very difficult time for all of us. We all have questions that may never be answered here on this earth. However, I know the Lord is in control and this passage is what I lean on: "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words. ~ 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18
