“ *Billy was good man! He lived across the street from my parents for the last 8 years. He always checked on them, just to see how they were doing and if they needed anything! They really enjoyed his jams and jellies. While my mother was battling cancer a few years ago, Billy would bring food over so they didn't have to cook. Since my mother has passed away Billy would come over and check on, and hang out with my dad. Since we live out of state, it was comforting to know that someone was keeping an eye on them! He was a truly good person! He will be missed!! He and my mother can continue those kitchen table conversations in heaven!!
