

Billy J. Shaw

June 16, 1926 - March 31, 2013

Shaw, Billy J, age 86, beloved husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather and friend, passed away on Sunday, March 31, 2013. Born on June 16, 1926 to Velma and Louis Shaw, he lived on the family land that he loved. He is survived by his brother, Hubert (Ruth) Shaw; daughter, Wanda (Dale) Layton; grandchildren, Dale (Tandra) Layton, Shawn (Rob) Grubb, Heather (Kevin) Reid, Kristen Scheinert; great grandchildren, Jordan (Jacob) Harrison, Madison Layton, Morgan Grubb, Erin Grubb, Kelsey Reid, Natalie Layton, Andrew Layton, Kaleb Reid. Too many to name individually are his church family at Union United Methodist Church, his horse riding family at his barn, his gospel music family, his golf buddies, his in-laws, nieces, nephews and a host of others. Of special mention are his "boys" from the ranch who called him Pop. He is reunited in heaven with his bride of 65 years, Mary Nell Adams Shaw, his daughter, Anita (Elliot) Marcus and his brothers, Lane (Faye) and Wendell (Louise) Shaw. Bill was a cowboy; a man's man. Tough on the outside with a tender heart within. If you spent time with him, you were in the company of a master storyteller. Generous, steadfast and fiercely loved to the end, our world will never be quite the same without Bill Shaw. Visitation will be at 11 AM on Tuesday, April 2 at Union United Methodist Church, AKA Union, The Church at Chelsea Park. The funeral will follow at 1 PM with Rev. John Hill, Rev. Jimmy Aycock and Bro. Maylon Felkins officiating. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Union United Methodist Church. Please sign on line condolences at www.boltonfuneralhome.com.
