“ I know this has been one of the hardest things a family could go through, but you all love God and God loves you. He will be with you, and He will be there when we all get to see precious Carlee again. I know she is safe in His arms and being rocked and held and cuddled. I am thankful that God entrusted you to take care of Carlee on this earth and that I got to be in her life. She was a blessing to me and so are all of you. I love you, Cacy, Bobbie and Tim!

“ Susan, I want to tell you that I am thinking of you and praying for your family. That sweet little lamb is now in Jesus' arms. I can't say anything consoling. I'm sorry I wasn't here this last week to see you at the funeral home. I will be praying for you all summer. I will be here at home all of June recuperating, so call me if you feel like it. I care and I am so sorry. There aren't words adequate to express my sympathy. Love you, Carol S.

“ I am so sorry about the loss of your little Carlee. I know there are words no one can really say to ease the pain you have in your heart. Yet, I would like to share with you something that touched my heart, it is the knowledge that God will respond to our persistent prayers to help us through any tough time such as this. At Philippians 4:6 and 7 it says that "the peace of God that excels all thought will guard your heart and your mental powers." Please know that my prayers are with you at this time and I urge you to continue to pray for strength to get through the rough moments ahead.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost a child many years ago and I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons
