“ My brother, Lawrence Parker, lived for the Lord Jesus Christ many years. I can't tell you how many people he led to the Lord. Some was on their death bed. He also visited the sick and shut ins, and also prayed for them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord, as the scriptures says to do. Their is no telling how many families that he brought groceries too. He was always concerned about the needs of others. He would give you the shirt off his back, if he thought you needed it. He was a true Christian, he studied the Holy Scriptures daily. Without fail. When he recently had eye surgery, and couldn't see to read, he was really bothered. Not because he couldn't see the tv, but because he couldn't read the scriptures. Like the Apostle Paul said, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at His appearing. Paraphrased. I know I shall see my brother again. There is no doubt. He is in Heaven walking the streets of gold. And now he has sight in the eye he was blind in since a little boy. Completely made whole. No more worry, no more sickness, and no more sorrow. Oh my, what a homecoming. It makes me homesick to go.
