“ *It was a joy to see Charity each morning. She was always smiling and had a kind word. You don't take people like her for granted. My heart goes out to her children as I know the pain of losing a mother to domestic violence. She will truly be missed...

“ Me and Charity grew up as cousins and lived right next door to each other most of our lives. We were very close. I spent many nights at her house even as an adult. She'd call me and ask me to spend the night and of course I couldn't say no to her. She will always and forever be My Boo Thang! I miss you so much already. I'll check in on all the girls for you. Rest easy and know that you will never be forgotten. I love you Charity forever and always. If you want to know our best memory you can see it on Facebook. I shared her best memory with me!!
