“ We didn't know her for long but she was a delight to be around. Her children are commended for taking such loving care of their mother. No doubt she has been transformed to a glorious body in heaven.

“ Charlene was such a sweet lady, if you ever saw her she was always smiling. She loved the Lord and anyone she met became a friend. I know she will be missed here but I know she is rejoicing in heaven with her family and friends! Hold on to those precious memories death cannot take away.

“ Ruth and I were best friends in high school. She was at my house or I was at her house—EVERY DAY. I spent many, many night at the Moore house . So many that Mrs Charlene often referred to me as her “fourth daughter . I’m all the years I’ve know her, Mrs Charlene was the epitome of the Southern Lady. I never heard her say an unkind word to or about anyone. She always had a smile and an encouraging word for everyone. She was a Christian example to all who knew her and what we all strive to be. Rest easy, sweet lady. I’ll see you when I get there. I’ll always love you .
