“ Though I have a sister, Connie was my sister from another mister. We didn't get to see each as often as we'd like to have, but we did as often as we could. We've stayed in touch since children. I will miss her dearly as a lot of people will. May the Lord bless her and all of her family in their time of grief. She's with Wayne now and smiling down from the porch in the heavens.

“ Praying for all of you! I enjoyed having Connie in my Business Education classes in the early 70s. She always had that smile and seemed to enjoy what we were doing. Enjoyed keeping with her over the years. I would see her here in Columbiana when she worked at the Courthouse. Also renewed our friendship on Facebook. She was always a joy to be with.
