“ Courtney,
I was so sadden to hear the news of you being called home. Me and you use to talk alot after high school as we both struggled becoming mothers and we would communicate about it and shed tears, we later both had our dream come true and we became moms. You was always such a loving sweet person and had a voice of an angel. We will miss you here on earth may you be at peace in your fathers arms.

“ I babysat Courtney at our memaws many years ago. Courtney asked me to scramble her eggs and do it like memaws and put milk,salt,pepper in it. My cooking skills at 14 were not very mature. I went into the kitchen confused but confident and AFTER scrambling the eggs I poured milk on them sprinkled with salt and pepper. I proudly served the dish to Courtney. The annoyed stare burst to tears for hours...THIS IS NOT RIGHT!!!

“ I am so thankful for Courtney’s life! She truly exemplified joy and selflessness. She was always reaching out to me to ask how she could help me and would give of her time willingly. Those amazing traits were passed down to her precious girls and I was blessed to have taught two of them in kindergarten! I saw Courtney’s influence of joy and selflessness all over their lives and I know how much they loved their sweet mama. Courtney blessed me greatly and I will miss her very much. I am praying for Courtney’s family-may the God of all comfort bless you and surround you with peace!
