“ My Pop-Pop, I rember the times he would sit outside of the house in his spot every morning until he was ready to come in. Every time my cousins and I would walk outside, we never missed the chance to stop and talk with him for a while. I remember one time when my dad and I went out and picked Blackberries and brought them to his wife, Mary-Anne, and she would make her famous homemade Blackberry Pie. Im gonna miss you pop-pop 🥹🥹

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Curry was always funny, I have fond memories of him. The last memory I have of him when I pulled up to work at Dollar General in Childersburg going in to work and lo and behold he was sitting in his car in front of store waiting on me, I was so tickled to see him. May God be with you all. I love all of you very much.. May God comfort yall. Sincerely Lorretta Davis Peoples
