“ I am so sorry for your loss. May reading these scriptures be of encouragement to you. Isaiah 33:24, and 25:8, tell us that The "God of Love" will soon bring an end to sickness and death. Jesus promised that those in the memorial tombs will...come out" John 5:28,29) In harmony with God's original purpose, those resurrected as humans will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth (Luke 23:43) This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life for obedient humans. Sounds too good to be true? Isaiah 55:11 tell us that what ever proceeds forth from God mouth will prove to be true. I hope that this entry will give you and your family some comfort and assured hope. For further information, please contact the local Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family. When we feel loaded down, overwhelmed or overcome with sadness we do well to follow Bible examples and speak openly to the one whom the Bible calls at Psalm 65:2 “Hearer of prayer, even to you people of all flesh will come”. If we do so in faith we too may find that our sadness is replaced by “the peace of God that excels all thought” as stated at Philippians 4:7. Almighty God can be our rock.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Please know that God will comfort and sustain you. Psalms 34:18 says that He is near to those broken at heart and saves those crushed in spirit. He truly knows the pain you feel. He assures us at John 5:28 that a time will soon come when we will welcome back to our arms those we have lost. Know that time is very near. Allow God to comfort your soul until that day arrives. Please keep His promises close to your heart. I offer my deepest sympathies to your entire family.
