“ He was one of the greatest people that's ever been a part of my life. When he passed, I lost myself. He brought out the better me n me. He taught me how to love and showed me what it truly meant and how it should feel to be loved unconditionally. He was passive about so much. And he was so helpful to everybody. He was a simple man with a good heart. I miss the look in his eyes when he looked so deeply into mine, trying to read my soul. He knew me better than I knew myself. He was an amazing husband and a great father. Our son, Dallas, was one of the greatest gifts he gave me. A small piece of him to enjoy when his presence was no more. He's so much like his daddy it isn't even funny. We miss you David. Fly high. Give heaven some hell. And you better be waiting on me, when I get where I'm going. My life, my love, my soulmate, my EVERYTHING. I miss you my baby, until we meet again. I love you forever and always. Watch over us and keep us safe from all harm babe.

David always had a good heart, never disrespectful to me or my family! My son loved him like a brother, they shared a lot of good times and bad. We loved him 🙏 Praying for his family as they go through this difficult time today! Deepest sympathy, The Buse Family
