

Deborah Ann Zaroba

July 28, 1951 - October 30, 2021

Deborah Ann Bridges Zaroba passed away at home October 30, 2021. Debbie was born July 28, 1951, in Birmingham, Alabama to Leo Crawford Bridges, Sr. and Alice Ann Wilder Bridges. She was the oldest child and predeceased by her siblings Leo Crawford Bridges, Jr. and Blanche Bridges. Debbie is survived by her uncle Jack Bridges (spouse Karen); sisters, Pam Foster Cottingham and Younnie Yarbrough Veal (spouse Roy); sister-in-law Michelle Bridges; her son Dusty Fox (spouse Alice) and two grandsons John Paul "J.P." and Jacob; her son Travis Fox (spouse Kelly); many cousins, nephews, nieces and Tip.

Debbie was a faithful follower of Jesus Christ and member of First Baptist Church of Columbiana. She had a strong faith that was evident by her numerous acts of kindness and generosity to others. Debbie was an expert fisher woman, nature lover, purveyor of fine jellies, artist and friend to many. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Debbie will be buried at a graveside service on Saturday, November 13, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. at Bay Springs Baptist Church amongst generations of her family members. If you wish to make a memorial gift, please consider donations to First Baptist Church of Columbiana in memoriam of Debbie Zaroba.

“ Pam, Younnie, Dusty, Travis, and family: Carolyn and I hold all of you in our prayers this week. Among my earliest and most precious memories of childhood were times spent with our cousins at their house in Center Point, at Granny and Pop's house in Tarrant, and at the mill house. Debbie was my very first cousin, and always special to my dad--a lovely and talented lady, a fantastic mom, a wonderful hostess, and a friend to everyone. We are all lessened by her loss. Much love to each of you.
