“ Don’s parents knew my father from their high school days in Philadelphia, MS. Our mothers worked together and were travel buddies after retiring. Our fathers’ were our first baseball coaches, Barranco Life Ins., Jackson, MS. Don and I shared a desk in the 2nd grade. Don was our QB in high school and I think SS on the baseball team.

Our junior year of high school, Don met his bride to be, a cute blonde, a sophomore, Cheryl. Far as I recall she may have been the first date he ever had! I also helped plan his bachelor party...

Don was blessed with a great life, to the Glory of God. I was blessed with a great close friend growing up.

I had worked for Lucent Technologies with Don for several years after he moved to Jackson, MS. He was one of those people, that never met a stranger. Cheryl and Don were just the perfect couple.

I remember Don always had a funny story about all his experiences. All of us were better people for knowing Donald Carl Smith. Rest in Peace old friend.
