“ Rob and family, I am so sorry to hear about Dot's death. Bob was my first cousin, and I can always remember what a beautiful person Dot was, inside and out. She always had a smile and laugh for everyone she met. Heaven is sweeter with her there. I'm thinking Bob and Quilla were there to meet her! Love and prayers,

“ Rob, I can't tell you how much I loved your Mom. She was so kind to me - I loved visiting with her on occasion, even taking her turnip greens and cornbread. She always made that seem so special! In one visit, she very graciously shared her recollections of Dennis' family (as she attended SCHS with his Mom and her sister). It meant the world to him, to talk with someone who knew them "when". She also always asked about Mother and would tell me how she missed Daddy. It was a joy to share memories with her. She too will be missed by many! Our prayers are with you all.

“ Well one of the good ones has gone home. I bet my daddy, Dot's Uncle Barney and Momma Lexie are so glad to see her. She was truly one of my favorites. A wonderful cook among many cooks in our family. Loved the Dollar Store to the point she knew when the truck came in with new stuff. Robin, she loved you with all her heart. You were her pride and joy. Many good times up on Thompson and Sterrett Streets. My love and prayers, Nancy (and Roy).
