“ So many great memories growing up with the Hillin family. I'm sorry for your loss! She was a fun and caring mom!! I'll always treasure the fun cookouts, card games around your table and watching football. Love to you all!

“ *One of my fondest memories is ...any one of the times that Dorothy and I would slip off and have Chinese for lunch. The guys didn't care to much for chinese. She and I had many, many long conversations with our sesame chicken.
My heart goes out to all of you. We've lost a very special lady indeed.*
