The words of Fay’s Minister at her service were indeed the best description of her. She was a lovely, graceful lady and a shining example of a faithful Christian. As the mother-in-law of Tina, I admired Faye all the years our children have been married. She and Jimmy treated our son as a family member as we proudly took Tina as a daughter and through the years grew to love her. Tina has been a daughter that has given so much love and care for Faye and Jimmy during the duration of her Mother’s illness. Her devotion was learned through the life and example of her Christian Mother. What a legacy Faye has left for her family!
