“ Thinking of your family, especially as the holidays approach. Fran was such an amazing and inspiring woman. she welcome me into her home and told me her stories one afternoon for a piece on World War Two veterans. It was such an honor to share time with her and I will be forever grateful for her lessons and insight. Keeping you and your family in my prayers.

“ Fran was our keynote speaker for the Amelia Earhart Luncheon, sponsored by the Alabama Ninety-Nines and Zonta Club of Birmingham in 2009. We remained email friends over the years talking about aviation, horses, llamas and other livestock. We also shared a lot of humor. I will miss her.

“ My wife (Dorothy Rogers Stephenson) and I (Charles Stephenson) grew up in Wilsonville and have many fond memories of the Lokeys and Fran. Since we live in San Antonio, Texas, Fran was our main source for information about Wilsonville and our many friends who reside there. She was a great lady with ample energy exhibited in what ever task she choose to tackle. She will be greatly missed.

“ I first met honey when I was working with her grandson, Joseph. She would come to the school and have lunch with him. His face would light up when he saw her coming down the hallway. When Joseph passed, she and I planted a tree in the courtyard of the school In his memory. She was a caring, thoughtful, and amazing woman. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.

“ I first met Skeet Phelps at the Wreaths Across America Dedication/Celebration. then I had a chance to talk to her more,at the church fellowship hall.And of course at the polls when I went to vote. And then again I was able to be in her company as she served with the ladies of the church at our VHS reunion. Such a grand personality, and beings I am new here in Wilsonville, I didn't have the pleasure of knowing her as long as some of you. But what I know, I loved immediatly, and the light of Christ was evident. Your family has been and will continue to be in my prayers. Rest in peace my newfound friend.
