“ I will always treasure the memories from Shelby High and Frankie. In those days, riding around in the Marlin, listening to music, well, maybe sharing a beer, bottle of wine, or maybe a little moonshine. Anyone that knew Frankie understood he was a great guy. The tragedy of the loss of Maxie hit us all hard back then. All this time later, the passing of Frankie has brought back a lot of warm memories, and a sadness that more and more of the friends of my youth - that I loved - are passing into the next plane, but also the hope that we will one day be together again. Love ya, Frankie. Rest in Peace until we meet again.
