“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ Susan, I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. I lost mine in 1996 to cancer. It is a sad time, but it will get better as time passes. The grief will be replaced with fond memories of her laughter and her love. Again, I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I've know Mrs.Kelly for several years, I met her through a freind of mine. It has been a pleasure knowing her. She always had such a sweet smile and a gentle loving spirit about her, and she never met a stranger. To the family I'm sorry for your loss and will keep you in our prayers. “ I've only known Mrs. Kelly for a short time. I had the privilege of meeting her 6 months ago when I began working at Columbiana Health and Rehab. She was such a joy to be around. I will miss seeing her bright smile every night. To the family, you have my heart felt condolences. She will be missed by so many of us.
