“ Aunt Freida was always so kind to me, but she would get onto me if I was being “ugly” as the Villagers who had a part in raising me would say. (I had a bit of a smart mouth. Shocking, I know.) Still, I have always known she loves me, and I love her dearly and will miss her. Until I see you again, fly with the angels and enjoy all the love I know the Lord is heaping on you already.

“ Dear family of Ms. Freida,
I was so sorry to hear of the passing of this wonderful woman. I had the opportunity to work closely with Freida when she kept books for Jimmy Davis and I worked with Dr. Nolen and then through her volunteer work with Shelby Baptist Association. She had a heart for those in need and a wonderful outlook on life. I know she will be missed here but has earned her place in heaven.
