“ Uncle George was an incredible man. He never met a stranger and always had a life story or many to share with people. He was always smiling and at times could be a bit of an instigator which we all learned to appreciate. When the family gathered together he always made sure there was plenty of food to share. We grew up always looking forward to seeing him and his family and I never saw him angry or sad. He had a way of lifting your spirits and making you laugh. I will miss you Uncle George. Thank you for all the great memories. My prayers go out to all his family for comfort, peace and strength. Love, Andrea Carter
