“ My daddy was always my number one supporter. He believed in me and encouraged me to do my best. He told me one of the proudest days of his life was when I graduated from the University of Alabama with my doctorate in 2007. When i was little, he nicknamed me Miss Worm from a puppet I loved on the Captain Kangaroo show. But, he changed that to Dr. Worm, a name only he called me. Love you so, daddy and I'm grateful to have been your daughter.
