“ Cricket was such a special and beloved sister-in-law (more like a sister, really). She was so special to me, from the moment I became part of the Lansford family. She always made me feel so welcome whenever Jack and I visited her home, and we loved to do that. She was the sibling closest in age to my husband Jack, and they always enjoyed being together. I enjoyed those special times, too. Cricket had a contagious joy of living, She always had something interesting to share! She will be missed, but remembered with love.

My deepest sympathy to all of Cricket's lovely family.
