“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ My Grandfather was a great man, he was a hard working man, a dependable & most of all a Godly man..He always spoke the truth whether you wanted to hear it or not. He served his country with pride & was a leader. He will be greatly missed but now he is where he has wanted to be for along time..he told me the day he died he loved me & was ready to go home, I knew what that meant. He could finally be with my Beloved & Precious Grandmother that left us all 7+ yrs ago. I know they are together again & that is the only thing that can put a smile on my face even though having them here would be much better for me & my family. I will love & miss them forever & I couldn't have ask to have been more blessed than I have been to have had them.I love you, Nanny & Granddaddy with all my heart & my heart is broken right now, but neither of you are broken anymore..you are completely healed & I thank God for that. Love you always~ your granddaugther, Tracy!
