

Howell Horn

January 9, 1937 - April 27, 2020

Horn, Howell, age 83, of Columbiana, passed away on April 27, 2020. A private graveside service will be held at Pinelawn Gardens, where he will be buried next to his beloved Laura.

Howell is preceded in death by his wife: Laura L. Horn, parents: Yeager and Mayme Horn; and sister: Carol Horn Shurbet. He is survived by his daughter: Marsha Horn Harbin (Deby Wright), niece: Kelli Shurbet Gilmer (Jeff); nephew: Randall Shurbet; and several great nieces and nephews.

Howell was a lifelong resident of Columbiana, Alabama and served as a police officer and police chief for many years. He attended Auburn University and remained an avid Auburn fan for life. He graduated from the University of Montevallo with a degree in business.

Howell was supportive of his daughter, Marsha and supported her employment and philanthropic efforts through the IPC Foundation.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be made to the Independent Presbyterian Church Foundation, 3100 Highland Avenue, Birmingham, AL 35205.

Please sign online condolences at www.boltonfuneralhome.com.

“ So sorry to hear about sweet, Mr. Horn. My family and I thought very highly of him and loved him dearly. I always enjoyed making him Christmas goodies and seeing his eyes light up when he answered the door. He will be missed by many! We are sending lots of prayers and love to his family. “ I was a substitute bus driver when I was in school, Howell cut his thumb off at his dads butcher shop and couldn't drive for a couple weeks or so, so I got to drive the bus for him. I got to stay in touch with him at Col. Health and Rehab because my sister is there. He will be missed! Good man!

“ I'm so sorry for your loss I remember the first saw him. I was six and got to ride the bus to school. I look up on the bus when he opened the the door and the first thing that hit my mind was oh my there is a giant. But he was a great man and he had a big heart. He will be missed. Praying for all the family
