

Jack W Davis Sr

January 18, 1941 - August 18, 2020

Davis, Jack W. Sr., age 79, of Wilsonville, passed away on August 18, 2020 at his home after a long battle with cancer. The Celebration of Life will be at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, August 22, 2020 at Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Shelby. Jack was born January 18, 1941 in Fairfield, Alabama to Walter and Elizabeth Davis. He was a loving son, father, grandfather, great grandfather, and, most importantly, husband. His life was full. He started his career in the Air Force, then God called him into the ministry as a preacher. Later he rejoined the Air Force as a chaplain and retired as a major. Then following God's call, he became a missionary to Cuba, along with his wife of 58 years, ETTY Davis. Although we miss him, we know that we will see him again. What a day that will be!

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that you give an offering to your missionary of choice.

Please sign online condolences at www.boltonfuneralhome.com.

“Wow what a wonderful pastor friend. Chaplain came to my Dads squadron n talked about God. When my family lived on Mcchord afb we were blessed because there was a special family there called the Davis family. They were diffently a god send. One day I was talking to Chaplain Davis n he asked m.j e if I was baptized mom n dad said yes as a catholic but Chaplain Davis had a way to convince my parents that I wanted to be baptized. Soon after I was baptized my mom n dad wanted to be baptized also. Shortly after that we joined Lakewood Baptist Temple. Chaplain n Mrs Davis were involved with the Navigators . What a good experience that was. Along the way Becky Davis Pitts n I were working at a carpet cleaning service we did calling from a phone book. We both quit are jobs there to peruse different avenues. I have kept in contact w the Davis family . My prayers n thoughts are with this precious family.

“ There are so many memories of Bro Jack... One in particular is one Sunday Morning he came to me and said, Rose, play the piano today. I said, I can't. He said okay, I can't either and walked away... So gentle. I miss already but, i am happy for him for he is walking the streets of Gold and seeing all the cubans that he witnessed to and they have gone on home to.

Edie, Children, Ann, Sarah, and brothers,, I am praying for God to give you comfort that you can feel the happiness I feel for bro Jack... I love you all so much.

Happy homegoing Bro Jack... We will miss you but the torch is passed to us to take the Gospel to ones that doesn't have it as yet.

“ Always we will remember how kind and well spoken our Brother in Christ was when he spoke at church. We will remember taking him fishing about this time last year. He enjoyed that very much. He also enjoyed the car show we all went to together and eating hotdogs on a hot summer day. He was just the kind of friend we will miss very much.
