James attended Sidney Lanier High School, served in the U.S. Navy for four years and received his Dr. of Veterinary medicine degree from Auburn University in 1961. He practiced veterinary medicine in the Birmingham area for over forty years. Known as “the Ultimate” by his beloved nieces and nephews, and their children, too, James Nelson played a crucial role as a hub of family relations, maintaining bonds across generations with his playful, loving and, at times, exasperating interactions. His presence will be dearly missed by one and all.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Jennie Beatrice and George Bliss Green; brothers: Dr. George Bliss Green and Dr. Harris Reed Green; and sister: Janice Mahoney. He is survived by his wife: Ann Jackson Green; daughters: Sherri Lynn Green and Kelly Huddleston (John); step-children: Rick Layton (Leslie), Cindy Sorrow (Lu), and Tim Layton; grandchildren: Colton and Taryn Berger, Mary Myers and Stuart Huddleston, Christen Noah, Ryan and Hope Layton; sisters: Marjorie Scorey and Dorothy Hawthorne;

“ Oh my! Ultimate! One of my favorite memories is at a party you had by the lake. My dad got up and sang Stand By Me and the look we shared with each other is still to this day priceless. I loved going out on the boat and every conversation we had was filled with laughter. You will always be The Ultimate Uncle James.”
