“ I remember all the kindness shown to Dave and I over the years. Especially the time when James & Robin opened up their home to my family members. It was the weekend of Laurie’s wedding and it so happened to be a race weekend in Talladega plus the Alabama/Tenn game. There was absolutely no hotels to stay. Dave said call James & Robin which I did. They didn’t hesitate to take them into their home. I’ve never forgotten this act of generosity. That’s the kind of people they are and have always been. James will definitely be missed by all. My prayers continue to be with Robin and family.
