“ Estelle and Jason, I'm so sorry. James is one of the central figures in my life. I can never repay his loyalty or the example he set for us younger people in construction of how a man of character lives and works. He was always a gentleman - kind, soft-spoken, never a harsh word.

James never failed to remember my birthday and my kids' birthdays and would send a card or call every year! I still have cards from him in my desk at work that I will cherish forever along with his memory.

W.J. and June loved James like a son, and we all love the Thompson family!
