“ James was such a wonderful man and Susan completed him. We worshipped with them and it was always such a joy to be around them. Not seeing him again will be a loss for everyone who knew him.

Susan, our love and prayers are with you. Words have not yet been created to make this time less painful.

“ One of my last visits overnight to Columbiana, I spent about an hour visit with my precious friend Jane. I had not met James. He was so gracious and welcoming. I am forever grateful for that visit. God hold you all in the shelter of gracy and mercy that our Lord gives us so freely through his son. Always with live. Judy Grimes-McKee
