

Jason Goellner

October 7, 1976 - August 5, 2015

Goellner, Jason, age 38, of Columbiana, died on August 5, 2015. The funeral service will be held at 3 p.m., Sunday, August 9, 2015 at Bolton Funeral Home with Pastor Susan Beeson officiating. Burial will follow in Columbiana City Cemetery. Bolton Funeral Home is directing.

Mr. Goellner is preceded in death by his father, John Bruce Goellner. He is survived by his mother, Ann Smith (Greg); brother, John Goellner; sister, Tara Smith and numerous other family and friends.

Please sign online condolences at www.boltonfuneralhome.com.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

RO

“ So sorry to hear of your loss Ann & Greg Smith. Lost of a child is not easy at any age they because they say you lose a part of yourself. You both and the family are in our prayers. God Bless You!!

Rodney - August 17, 2015 at 12:00 AM

AJ

“ John I am so sad to hear this. I am so very sorry and extremely shocked and heartbroken for you and your family. I knew when I saw this name it had to be him. Lots of love and prayers to you all. Rest in peace Jason thanks for the laughter that will always remain in my memories when Halloween comes around!

April Jones - August 15, 2015 at 12:00 AM

LB

“ Everyone is still in shock it is so unbelievable that you were taken away is such quick way. I hope you find peace and are 100% whole with your body and soul. God speed Jason

Len Blottin - August 11, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ Dearest Jason, you were the genuine article. There was nothing fake or phoney about you. I loved your smile and your laugh. I love how you loved Anna and Otis. I remember how upset you got when Otis went missing during a storm. How happy you were when you found him across the street. I remember the Christmas ornament you had with Otis' name on it. I remember how excited you were about going to California. I will never drive past the house on 32 without thinking about you, Anna and Otis.. I will never forget your smile and laugh.

Mary Beth Brantley - August 09, 2015 at 12:00 AM

AN

“ Jason, I am so happy you found the Rock Church and demonstrated the peace and strength you had found. When I went with you and Anna, I could feel and see the undeniable faith you had found in accepting Christ as your savior. What a inspiration you were. Remember the Plumeria seedlings you took care of for me when I was gone.....well when it blooms I have the privilege of giving it a name. The first one that blooms will be named after you. Jasons Glory. Peace be with you.

Anna - August 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ My heartfelt sympathys go out to the family and friends during this difficult time. I hope that the promise in 1 Thessalonians 4:14 can bring comfort. Knowing that there's a hope for the ones we have lost in death can be so reassuring.

August 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

TA

“ Dear Ann and Family, You were such a wonderful, sweet, loving, and close mother to Jason. You know that he always felt loved and supported by you. That love will never die. However much it hurts now, let that love be a comfort to you just as it always was a force in Jason's life. We are thinking of you and want to express our deepest sympathy. Tara and Otto

Tara Arnoscht - August 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

DA

“ You are the best guy and friend. You are in my heart forever.

Darlene - August 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

KT

“ I am so sorry for your terrible loss of Jason. I had met him through Darlene, who is a close friend of mine. I pray for comfort and strength at this hard time. Take care and love each other!

Kay Taylor - August 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

BM

“ Jason was one of the first few people I met when I moved to Birmingham. He was one of the sweetest and funniest people I ever met! He was a good man and a good friend. I will miss him! My thoughts and prayers are with his family and girlfriend. Til I see you again my friend!

Brittney McBrayer - August 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

AB

“ My love for you is unconditional and irrevocable. I won't and I can't feel that way ever again. Only a few more days and we would have finally seen each other again. Now I will have to wait to see you in heaven, luckily you are forever in my heart. My condolences to your family..especially Ann, John, Tara, Greg, and Otis...

Anna Blottin - August 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

AB

“ My Biggie-my love you for is unconditional and irrevocable. I am lucky to have had you in my life for almost ten years, about 7 of which I called you mine. I can't and won't ever get over you or feel the way I felt when I was with you, ever. I can only hope to see you in heaven, but until then-I will keep you 'tucked' in my heart. You would tell me to keep faith always and to lift up my tiny nana chin. You were at peace with your life and everybody should know that. I want to extend my condolences to your family and friends..especially Ann, John, Tara, Greg, and Otis.

Anna Blottin - August 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

SH

“ Jason was truly one of a kind. I will remember his laughter and his (sometimes) shy smile. I always felt like he knew something the rest of us didn't. We will miss him.

Sherry and Tom Hartfield - August 08, 2015 at 12:00 AM

LI

“ Jason, I know you always hated it when I took pictures of you, but now I am glad I did. I will never forget brunch in the Birmingham Tavern, it was one of my favorite memories with you and my sister. You were excited to help me put my Jeep wheels on, and made my sister happy for years. I never realized how many memories we had together until I looked through my photo albums today. I will miss you Jason.

Leonard Blottin III - August 07, 2015 at 12:00 AM

BB

“ Always in our hearts and memories.

Bucky Blottin - August 07, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CP

“ Ann & family, I want you to know that you are in my thoughts & prayers! May you find strength, hope & comfort in God's love. I am here if you need anything. With heartfelt sympathy, Charlie

Charline Pope - August 07, 2015 at 12:00 AM