“ A beautiful Tomato garden now stands alone, missing the one who nurtured it But now He is gone, His tomatoes still bloom, and the sun it still shines, But the rain is like tear drops, for the ones left behind, The weeds lay waiting to take the beauty away, But the beautiful memories of its keeper are in our hearts to stay, He loved every Tomato even some that were weeds, So much love He would plant with each little seed, But just like his tomatoes he was part of Gods plan, So when it was his time he reached down his hand, He look through the tomatoes searching for the best, That's when he found Granddaddy, it was his time to rest, It was hard for those who loved him, to just let him go, But God had a spot in his garden, that needed a gentle soul, So when you start missing Granddaddy, remember if you just wait, When God has a spot in his garden, He'll meet you at the gate....
