“ To Momma: My tears are slowly being replaced with thoughts of Comfort and Peace as I know you are in Heaven. I will cherish all the good times we have had together. I know you will be with me as I begin to face the days without you. I take comfort in the fact that I know one day we will see each other again. I Love you Momma, Jason

“ To My Gran-Jerry: I was blessed to have had you in my life. I will always cherish the memories we shared together (my first maincure, age 3) and the wonderful times we had when you were able to come to my dance recitals, and the high school plays. I know you enjoyed the 4-H shows as much as I did and watching the goats grow up. You were always an involved and welcome part of my life. I wish you were going to be here as I start a new chapter of my life as a young, married woman. Your presence will be very much missed, much love, Tiffany.
