Born on November 26, 1927, Jewell Potter Engle was the beloved child of William Henry and Grace Elizabeth Potter in Barbourville, Kentucky. She met James Engle in high school and fell in love. She became his war bride on December 2, 1943, at the age of 16. Together they had three children: James Tony Engle of Scottsdale, Arizona; Carolyn Engle Waters of Woodstock, Georgia; and Shannon Engle Bristow, deceased, of Shelby County, Alabama. She and James enjoyed a remarkable 33 year career as an Air Force Officer and pilot, and both shared a patriotic love of this country which they instilled into their children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. A woman of deep faith, Jewell became the anchor for the entire family wherever they went in the world and never forgot to put her family first after God and country. A joyful woman went home to her Lord on July 6, 2016.

Survivors include James T. Engle and wife Pam of Scottsdale, Arizona; Carolyn Engle Waters and husband David Daniel Waters of Woodstock, Georgia; and Kelley Smith and Samantha Rush and families, daughters of Shannon Engle Bristow of Shelby County, Alabama. Jewell was so proud of her 8 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren. She believed that her family was a blessing, and she enjoyed knowing that she would live on in their hearts for generations to come. She proudly told everyone, "I am living in my harvest years." She leaves a wonderful legacy of joy and great love!
