

Johnnie Sue Ennis

December 11, 1941 - March 9, 2021

Johnnie Sue Ennis passed away March 9, 2021. Johnnie Sue was born December 11, 1941 in Clanton, Alabama. She was the oldest child and big sister to two younger brothers. Because her father wanted a boy, she was named Johnnie after him even though she was a girl.

After high school, she moved to Birmingham, Alabama where she met her devoted husband of 57 years, Stanley Ennis. Together, along with their one daughter, Charlotte, they moved to Columbiana in 1971. Johnnie Sue was a homemaker and community volunteer until returning to work at the Columbiana Housing Authority for many years. After retiring, she and her husband moved to their retirement home on Lay Lake in Wilsonville.

Johnnie Sue enjoyed traveling, sewing and cooking, and adored her three granddaughters. According to her granddaughters, she makes the world's best sugar cookies! Johnnie Sue cherished her special friends in the Linda Legg Sunday School Class at First Baptist Church of Columbiana as well as ladies in the local Red Hat Society.

Johnnie Sue was preceded in death by her parents, Johnnie Culpepper and Gurtis Riggins Culpepper. She is survived by her husband, Stanley Bryce Ennis, daughter, Charlotte Ennis Gregory (Richard), granddaughters, Caroline Beason, Mary Elizabeth "Meg" and Emily Wells Gregory of Decatur, Alabama and two brothers, James Eddie Culpepper, and William Clark Culpepper (Landa), both of Clanton, Alabama.
