“ Shane was our pastor for a while when he was in Alabaster. He fought the fight and kept the faith. Jesus said as he entered heaven" Welcome home my child, your days on this earth were short but you have eternity to spend with me, your Saviour."

“ Shane was an avid Bama fan who loved to give me (an Auburn fan) a hard time. Over the past few years Shane became a good friend. We enjoyed watching college football, talking about God and life. He was a great guy and I will miss him greatly. I so wish I could be there to show my love and respect (I live in SD). You will be missed my brother. Enjoy the presence of God! See you again one day! My prayers are with the family at this difficult time.
