“Josie was a wonderful person who loved her Lord, the church, her nephews and nieces and all her friends. Age took most of her hearing but not her smile, warm heart and love of being home. She battled back from a broken leg, through months of convalescence so she could return home to Westover. Now she has gone home again; this time to a dwelling not made with hands. No more wonderful 24/7 care assistants in her home - she can get about just fine, visit with the saints above and praise her Lord forever.”
