“Dearest Smiths and Family members, I have been grieving for your loss. It seems I almost know your Mother and Grandmother from Chaplain (1st Lieutenant) Justin Smith and I have been impressed by her heart for The Lord and the beauty of her heart to see her son in even expanding ministry for The Lord. I am confident from all that Justin told me that The Lord heard her prayers over the years for you all, too. God is working to shine the love and beauty of Christ, as Justin told me she reflected, in your lives as well. The Lord knows your grief and He keeps all your tears in His bottle (Psalm 56:8). Just as He sees your Mother and Grandmother face to face, He is forming the same reflection of Christ Jesus that she now radiates-in you, too (Galatians 4:19). I will continue to call on The Lord for you and your dear Family as you deeply hold on to Him who loves you and weeps with you. Sincerely yours in Christ, Chaplain (Colonel) James Schaefer.

“ What a sweet, wonderful, and Christian woman. I will never forget seeing her at nearly every school event we ever had, cheering for all of us and loving us all much like her own. My condolences and prayers for peace and comfort go out to Justin. Heaven welcomed home a very sweet Angel!

“ Ann was my best friend for over 50 years. We worked together in the courthouse in the 1960's & became very close. We have shared so much through the years - a lot of laughter, good times, tears, dreams, & plans. We trusted each other with our deepest thoughts & prayers. We talked to each other every day. She was the kind of friend most people only get to dream about. She had a heart of gold, great sense of humor, compassion, & a lot of love for her family & friends. She will certainly be missed. She provided me with much joy & happiness & enriched my life. She was a blessing, & I know she will be waiting for me just inside the golden gates of heaven. I love you Ann.

“ David and Justin, I am so sorry to hear about your mother. We had a lot of good memories together. She was a hard worker, caring and loving person. The best memory of all she is now with her Lord and Savior. And she loved your dearly and her grandchildren. God bless each of you. Love, Aunt Faye
